

A half of all people in lone parent families are in low income. This is more than twice the rate for couples with children.

Source: Households Below Average Income, DWP; UK; updated Sep 2010