

A sixth of the population - around 10 million people - are in the poorest fifth at least two years in three

Source: British Household Panel Survey, University of Essex, Institute for Social and Economic Research; Great Britain; updated Nov 2008