

Most households who spend at least some time on low income move in and out of low income

(Number of moves on and off low income over the period 2002 to 2005 amongst those with at least one year of low income)

Source: British Household Panel Survey, University of Essex. Institute for Social and Economic Research; the data is for the years 2002 to 2005; Great Britain; updated Feb 2007