

The proportion of children in low-income households has fallen from 34% in 1998/99 to 30% in 2006/07. Children remain more likely than adults to live in low income households.

Source: Households Below Average Income, DWP; UK; updated Sep 2008