

Children from routine and manual backgrounds have, on average, one more tooth with obvious tooth decay than other children

Source: 2003 Dental Health Survey of Children and Young People, ONS; the data is for 2003; UK