

Teenage motherhood is eight times as common amongst those from manual social backgrounds as for those from professional backgrounds

For each social class, number of live births by females aged 15 to 19 as a proportion of the total number of live births by females of all ages

Source: Child mortality statistics, ONS; England & Wales; updated Jul 2010