

The number of working-age people in England who are deemed to be at a high risk of developing a mental illness is similar to a decade ago.

Women are more at risk than men.

Source: Health Survey for England, DH; England; updated Mar 2011