

Each year around 20,000 more people aged 65 or over die in winter months than in other months

Source: ONS mortality data; England & Wales; updated Dec 2010