

A third of adults aged 65-74, and half of adults aged 75 and over, report a limiting longstanding sickness or disability. Both proportions are similar to a decade ago.

Source: General Lifestyle Survey, ONS; Great Britain; updated Nov 2010