

Disabled adults are twice as likely to live in low-income households as non-disabled adults, and this has been the case throughout the last decade

Source: Households Below Average Income, DWP; UK; updated Aug 2010