

Apart from London and the West Midlands, all parts of Great Britain have seen similar, significant recent falls in child poverty

Proportion of children in households below 60% of median income after deducting housing costs

Source: Households Below Average Income, DWP; updated June 2007