

There is a strong relationship between the state of the local outdoor physical environment and the deprivation of the area. The relationship between housing quality and deprivation is much less clear.

For each deprivation quintile, the proportion of its Super Output Areas which fall in the lowest fifth for outdoor physical environment and for housing stock

Source: Northern Ireland Multiple Deprivation Measure 2010; updated Aug 2010