

In rural districts, like in urban districts, the proportion of people who are in low income is slightly - but only slightly - lower than a decade ago

Source: Household Below Average Income, DWP; England; updated Sep 2010