

A third of households in rural districts say that their local public transport needs improving

Proportion of households who stated they would like to see their local public transport improved

Source: Survey of English Housing 2004/05, DCLG; England; updated Jan 2008