

The proportion of households accepted as newly homeless by their local authority is much lower in rural districts than in urban districts

Source: Statutory Homelessness England, Statistical Releases for 2010, DCLG; England; updated Mar 2011