

For working-age adults in low income in both working and workless families, the proportion who do not have dependent children has increased

Source: Households Below Average Income, DWP; updated Sep 2010