

The authorities with the most households without central heating are the core cities and the northern islands

Source: Census 2001