

Three-fifths of those officially recognised as homeless are single adults with no dependent children. Most of the others are lone parents, with relatively few being couples.

Source: Statistical Bulletins on homelessness, Scottish Executive, Scottish Government; the data is for 2009/10; updated Dec 2010