

The number of pregnancies to girls conceiving under age 16 is lower than a decade ago, with most of the reduction having been in births rather than in abortions

Source: Conception statistics, ONS; updated Feb 2011