

At all ages, adults in routine and manual occupational groups are somewhat more likely to have a limiting longstanding illness than those from other occupational groups

Source: Welsh Health Survey; the data is the average for the three years to 2009; updated Dec 2010