

Each year around 1,500 more people aged 65 or over die in winter months than in other months

Source: ONS mortality data; updated Dec 2010