

The number of people aged 65 and over receiving home care almost halved between 1994 and 2001 but has remained fairly steady since then

Source: Welsh Assembly personal social services statistics, Wales; updated Jan 2011