

The proportion of people who are in low-income households is much higher for Catholics than for Protestants

Source: Households Below Average Income, DWP; the data is for 2008/09; updated Nov 2010