

The proportion of children who are in low-income households in rural districts is similar to that of a decade ago

Proportion of children in households below 60% of median income after deducting housing costs

Source: Household Below Average Income, DWP; England; updated Sep 2010