

Disadvantaged groups: Disabled adults, lone parents, and people over 50 in rural districts all have a notably higher chance of being without work than other adults

