

The proportion of working-age people who are in receipt of out-of-work benefits is much higher in Derry, Strabane and Belfast than elsewhere - almost twice the rate of many other areas

Source: DSD (recipients) and ONS (population estimates); the data is for February 2010; updated Jan 2011